Surrogate Asked to Exempt Trust Fund from Inheritance Penalty.

Application was made to Surrogate Fitzgerald to-day by Henry B. The Surrouste reserved his decision.

Mr. Anderson said that Willam H. Vanderbilt ereated a true fund of 50.00.00 in his will which was bequeathed to Carnelius Vanderbilt, who did not, however, become entitled to any of the principal, but was empowered to distribute it by his will among his children. It was in reality an inheritanace to William H. Vanderbilt's grandehildren. Under the laws in force at the time of William H. Vanderbilt's grandehildren. Under the laws in force at the time of William H. Vanderbilt's grandehildren. Under the death with a inheritance tax. Had Cornelius Vanderbilt died before in Was went into effect the trust fund would not have been taxable.

The Compiroller's counsil denied this contention, saying that the cease was similar to that of Cornelia M. Stewart's will, tinder which Judge Hillton had exercised his power of distribution, so that title was taken under his will and not that of Mrs. Stewart.
